

The Champions of Education Teaching Scholarship Application

The Catawba County Champions of Education is seeking scholarship applicants! Established by the Champions of Education in 2009, the two-year scholarship will be awarded to a Catawba County resident who is pursuing an undergraduate degree in education and who, within three years of graduation, agrees to teach in one of Catawba County's three school systems for two years.

The $5,000 ($2,500 for each year) merit scholarship will be awarded to a rising college junior.

In addition to submitting an application, the applicant must:

- Be a resident of Alexander, Burke, Caldwell or Catawba County for a minimum of 24 months.
- Have completed the initial two years of college with a minimum 3.0 grade point average.
- Have earned an SAT score of 1100 or better (550 minimum in math and 550 minimum in critical reading) or 522 or better on the Praxis I (176 minimum on reading, 173 in writing, and 173 minimum in math) or 24 or better on the ACT.
- Be eligible for acceptance for full-time enrollment in a teacher education program leading to licensure in one of the following two options: 1) an Appalachian State University (ASU) off-campus program offered at ASU Centers at Hickory and Caldwell or 2) a program offered at Lenoir-Rhyne University.
- Have demonstrated commitment to pursuing a career in education.
- Submit an application including transcripts, test scores, and three letters of reference postmarked no later than July 15, 2011.
- Agree to participate in an interview if he or she is selected as a finalist.
- Agree to teach in one of Catawba County's three schools systems (Catawba County Schools, Hickory City Schools, Newton-Conover City Schools) for two years within three years of graduation from college.

Candidates who intend to pursue degrees in high school math, high school science, exceptional children education, middle school math, middle school science, middle school social studies, or foreign language/ESL are especially encouraged to apply. In addition, students from underserved populations are encouraged to apply.

Applicants who are awarded this scholarship will receive $2,500 at the beginning of their junior year of college, and an additional $2,500 at the beginning of their senior year as long as they maintain a 3.0 GPA and remain enrolled full-time in a teacher education program leading to licensure. It is the responsibility of the scholarship recipient to provide Champions of Education with transcripts verifying GPA and full-time enrollment status. Scholarship recipients are also required to notify Champions of Education as to any changes in enrollment status.

Completed applications should be mailed to Teaching Scholarship Committee c/o Mr. Lamar Mitchell, Catawba County Champions of Education, 2760 Highway 70 SE, Hickory, NC 28602. Applications must be complete and postmarked no later than July 15, 2011.
